

CROW CANYON
ARCHAEOLOGICAL CENTER

May 16–July 2, 2022

IMMERSE YOURSELF

In this seven-week program, you will learn the fundamentals of archaeological method and theory.

Evening programs, field trips, service learning projects, and professional conferences will further expand your essential skills, so you'll be ready for real-world opportunities.

- Excavation
- Remote sensing
- Laboratory cataloging
- Collections management
- Artifact analysis
- Mapping
- Archaeobotanical processing
- 3-D Modeling
- Photogrammetry
- Archaeological ethics
- And more!

Certified Career Training

This program is certified by the Register of Professional Archaeologists. Work alongside professional mentors and Native scholars while advancing your career in the sciences.

Qualified students may receive financial support from the National Science Foundation's Research Experiences for Undergraduates Program (NSF REU 1851763).

Students from historically underrepresented colleges and groups are encouraged to apply.

Apply Today! crowcanyon.org • 800.422.8975, ext. 451 • Cortez, Colorado

Field School Fee, $2,130: Includes instruction, housing, and meals.

Application Deadline: Sunday, March 13, 2022.
Late applicants may be accepted if program is not full.

Tuition for six credit hours: Undergraduate students may enroll in Anthropology 379 through Adams State University.

Contact us for assistance or to answer any questions.

Email: fieldschool@crowcanyon.org

The Crow Canyon Archaeological Center is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit organization.